Private towards the end of Palani Street, this 2 story home has been designed to maximize space and functionality. On the ground level you have a cozy living room that has been tastefully laid out so that it flows into the kitchen which is open for family and guests to be all in one room and able to enjoy each others company. The breakfast bar is perfect everyone to be part of meal prep as well as quick snacks or meals. The granite countertops do add a nice touch to this kitchen and you will be amazed at the size of your stainless steel refrigerator. Large may be an understatement so you do need to see it to truly appreciate it. Also on the lower level you do have a half bath. Going upstairs are the 2 bedrooms and shared bath on one side. The spacious master bedroom and bath along with a walk in closet is at the end of the hallway. Its nice that all of the bedrooms are on this level yet they are on two sides of the home which is a thoughtful design element. You will also be doing your part in reducing your carbon foot print. With a fully paid photo-voltaic solar system and solar hot water heater your HELCO bills should be substantially lower. Good for the environment and even better for your pocketbook. You are just a short distance to the ocean where you can find a public park. Great place for walks and bike rides. Hawaiian Beaches does not have an active HOA but you enjoy the
